

Primary Education Qts Degree

Primary Education Qts Degree - Bristol, University of the West of England. 1 Teaching In Primary Schools degree. OVERALL RATING This is the overall rating calculated by averaging all live reviews for this uni on Whatuni. The BA (Hons) Primary Education with QTS degree is a three-year undergraduate course that leads to the award of an honours degree and qualified teacher status. The BA Primary Education with QTS programme is a three year undergraduate course that leads to the award of a degree and qualified teacher status. The newly designed programme offers you an honours degree and a recommendation for the award of QTS (Qualified Teacher Status) on successful completion of all elements over three years full-time study. School experience. You will spend a total of 120 days in schools during your degree, teaching pupils from across the primary age range. You will work alongside experienced teachers to develop your professional skills, knowledge and understanding. You will take increasing responsibility for children's learning over your three placements.